BECKHAM'S MAJORITY

Over Two Opponents Will Be 13,000
Percy Haly Predicts.

Lexington.—General Percy Haly, who is managing former Governor Beckham's campaign, said that he expects the number of votes to be cast by Democrats in the primary election next Saturday to be approximately 121,000, and he said further: "If the aggregate of the vote is 121,000 Beckham will get 67,000, Stanley 12,000 and McCreary 12,000, which will make Beckham's plurality over Stanley 25,000 and his majority over both opponents 13,000. There is absolutely no doubt in my mind about this. Beckham will carry ten of the eleven districts. Stanley will carry only the Second District, his home district, and that by less than 1,000 votes. Beckham will carry both the Fifth and Sixth Districts by comfortable margins."

Now wheat will do a little aviating. A jump of 10 cents a bushel in one day will add a dime to a poor man's dinner pail.

The innocent suffer the hardest from war. How many millions of people will half starve as a result of the new war in Europe?

"NELLIE WHY DO YOU FEAR ME?"

Congressman Kahn of California was baiting the Democrats of the House. "The business interests of the country have grown afraid of Democratic legislation, threatened and enneted," he shouted.

"Why? Why was Nellie, the beautiful cloak model, afraid of the villain?"

He told them about Nellie. In the early part of the play the villain had pushed her off the Brooklyn bridge. Later he threw her overboard from an Atlantic liner. Then again he had thrust her under a descending elevator. And the next time they met, as Nellie shrank from him he said: "Nellie, why do you fear me?"

And the business interests of the country, like Nellie, have a pretty clear understanding of when it's time to be afraid.

PANAMA CANAL TOLLS.

A steamer of average size operating through the Panama Canal will have to pay between $9,100 and $12,000 in tolls per voyage, according to computations recently made by the Vancouver (B. C.) Board of Trade.

The fastest steamers now make the run from Vancouver to New York around the Horn in 65 to 90 days, so it is stated in the Board of Trade's report, under a daily cost of $500 to $600 for operation. By the Panama Canal the same vessels will make the journey in about 20 days. There will accordingly be a saving per voyage of $22,500 or more, so the report points out.

If the estimated length of the voyage via the canal is correctly placed at 20 days, a ship will be able to make at least two trips by that route as against one via the Horn as at present, which, of course, will greatly increase the earning capacity of the vessels.—New York Times.

WORDS VS. IDEAS.

In one of his novels, Disraeli tells of a boy who complained that his college only taught him words, and he wished to know ideas, whereupon his father said, "Few ideas are correct ones, and what are correct in one can ascertain; but with words we govern men." This conclusion may be accounted for by what another writer calls "a lust for the beauty of mere words."

A beautiful word is a powerful thing. It throws a spell over one. It takes it to his heart as he would the fragrance of a rose. Says the Psalmist: "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." That is high praise, and yet how little we think of it; how little we pick out beautiful words to use in our conversation! And beauty is a quality of a word the same as fragrance is of a flower or song is of a bird.

We should use words for their beauty and should enrich our vocabulary with them, possibly, not for the word itself, as for the finer personality that it implies. Think of one who used only harsh, time-worn, ill-shaped words—wouldn't you think the less of him? But on the other hand if his language was garnished with beautiful words, would you not like his company?—Ashland Independent.

WHAT HAPPENED TO JOHN.

Johnny Jones had a job and he felt mighty gay. Until the Tariff came along and took his job away; Now Johnny cannot get his job, it flew across the sea, And work John did comes back to him stamped "Made in Germany."

—American Economist.

"HARD FEELINGS AND NEVER ENDING STRIFE"

"Is or is it not possible for this question to be settled with good temper, with kindly tolerance, with justice rendered to the opinion and to the action of others? We hope it may be so settled. But the use of the boycott by one side will inevitably tend to the use of the boycott by the other; the use of violent language by one side will inevitably provoke violent language from the other," says the Lexington Herald agent the approaching local option campaign in Fayette county. The Herald may as well strip for action. There is no such thing as "good temper," "kindly tolerance," or "justice to opinions" in a "wet or dry" campaign. It is war to the knife. The child is yet unborn who will see everybody at peace again. The influence of the campaign will be felt for years in every avenue of life. Participants on both sides must prepare for hard feelings, insults, indignities and seemingly never-ending strife. If there were not so much tragedy in it, those of us who have been through the fire could afford to sit back and "jess laff" at what is coming to the people of Lexington.—Cynthiana Democrat.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

Nothing destroys a man's memory like doing him a favor.

Race prejudice keeps many a dollar out of the bookmaker's hands.

A four-flusher is a man who drinks beer from a campaign bottle.

When a girl begins to talk she may be a speaking likeness of her mother.

And occasionally a man has money in a bank because he doesn't own an automobile.

Most men reckon time by pay days.

Many a man who is good has a sad look.

If the play is a frost the audience soon melts away.

Brides with sour dispositions are apt to spoil honeymoons.

The great detective's telephone bell rang for the fourth time.

"Somebody must be calling me," deduced the great detective shrewdly, and answered it.

"Hello, is this you?" came a deep voice from the other end of the wire.

"Yes," replied the great detective without a second's hesitation.

"Well, excuse me for not consulting you in person," continued the voice, "but I'm speaking to you from my bed. I have to speak to you from bed—my only suit of clothes has disappeared. That's why I called you up. It is unaccountable, inexplicable. I had the suit on when I came home sober last night. I looked all the doors and windows and when I went to sleep the suit was on the chair by my side. Now, there is nothing on that chair but a little dampness."

"That's so, it was raining last night, wasn't it?" inquired the great detective. "Was it, may I ask, a flannel suit?"

"Yes."

"And, may I ask, how much did you pay for it?"

"Three dollars and thirty-nine cents, days before yesterday."

"Ah!" said the great detective softly. "And last night it got wet for the first time. My dear sir, need I tell you what becomes of cheap flannel suits when they get wet? If you will look about on the floor you will probably find a few buttons. Sir, unless you can do that damp stain on your chair, you will never wear your suit again. Please send a money order. Good-bye."—Louisville Times.

PIPES AND PUFFS FROM U. S. GRANT'S BIRTHTOWN

Point Pleasant, Ohio, Methodist home for the Ohio River, thirty-five miles from Cincinnati via river. Only one church building at this point—Methodist. Rev. Luke Davis, Moscow, Ohio, is the popular Methodist clergyman.

Col. James B. Winspear is the Postmaster and he is "right on the job" every day. Father H. Bussman, age 71, but still hale and lively is Superintendent of the M. R. Sunday School. A model Christian every way.

I. I am living in Dr. Hustler's ancient brick mansion, six rooms, with garden and choice fruits and twelve select rose bushes. Wifeless and childless, I am "chief cook" and the ONLY "housekeeper." Happily I learned HOW to cook and wash dishes in the U. S. Army. I am a better cook than any woman I know at this time and have enough "grub" in my pantry to last four weeks—or longer.

III. Lo, I am in luck. I found Henry Ward Beecher's big skillet—the one he used in his camp in New Hampshire—and while it was rusty and had some coal tar on the bottom of it, it is still in fairly good condition for a camp of seven persons. It is large enough to cook twelve eggs at one time.

N. B.—Tell our friend Dr. John Barbour not to read this little squib about the Beecher skillet. He may want to buy and own it. Well, $16 will buy it. It is a Beecher Plymouth Church skillet—no fraud or doubt.

IV. I am a U. S. Grant admirer every day. He is NOT my "idol" (I do not worship idols) but, to my mind, he was the matchless U. S. Field Marshal from 1861 to 1881. His GRIT and GRIT, so far as I have read history, have never been excelled. Asked by a despondent Union officer at Pittsburg Landing at 12 o'clock midnight, April 6, 1862: "General Grant, don't it look RATHER BLUE for us?" "No," said U. S. Grant. "I'll whip the Rebels in the morning!" At 6 o'clock next morning Grant's united armies were really "whipping" the enemy. Grant neither doubted or dallied!

V. I have only been a resident of Point Pleasant for seven weeks. But listen, will you? I have now in my room seven precious Grant relics, to-wit:

1. Jesse R. Grant's old ashie, mighty rusty.

2. One pair scissors, one handle broken.

3. The old Grant family butter knife.

4. Nail, seven inches long, for Father Grant's coat.

5. Two Grant tumblers, in good condition now.

6. A tiny Grant bell—used in the yard.

7. A block of cypress, of curious shape, marked "U. S. G."

These relics are for sale—price $150. Dr. C. W. Blodgett, D. D., the ex-Department Commander of the G. A. R. for Ohio, should own them and use them in his Grant Orator.

VI. I am "hooked" to remain at Point Pleasant for the summer months—July and August, 1914. My legal residence now in Cincinnati and I am an humble lay-member of St. Paul M. E. Church, Cincinnati. I have a small bank account at the Atlas National Bank, Cincinnati, next to the U. S. Custom House and Postoffice building.

Only one dollar to my credit in the Atlas National Bank at this time. Any friend in Maysville who so desires can "stake" me for one dollar, or more, until the arrival of my Army Pension check, amount $120.00, on September 4, 1914. Selah!

Fraternally, your deaf friend,

MRS. MABEN WAS MADE WELL

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Wants Other Suffering Women To Know It.

Murfreesboro, Tenn. — "I have wanted to write to you for a long time to tell you what your wonderful remedies have done for me. I was a sufferer from female weakness and displacement and I would have such tired, worn out feelings, sick headaches and dizzy spells. Doctors did me no good so I tried the Lydia E. Pinkham Remedies—Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash. I am now well and strong and can do all my own work. I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and want other suffering women to know about it."—Mrs. H. E. MABEN, 211 S. Spring St., Murfreesboro, Tenn.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for nearly forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why Lose Hope. No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Meeting Place Wanted—No Invitations Received By Union Veterans This Year.

Lexington.—A statement, of which the following is part, has been issued under the authority of the Kentucky G. A. R.:

"At the State encampment of the Department of Kentucky, G. A. R., held in Harboursville June 9 to 11, a singular event happened. Not a city or town in Kentucky sent in an invitation for the encampment for next year. It was left to the department officers and council of administration to decide the matter. They would like to make choice before the approaching national encampment to be held in Detroit August 31 to September 5, 1914."

WAR DECLARED

Austria-Hungary to Give Serbia and the Balkans What's Coming to Them

Vienna, July 28.—Official notification of the declaration of war was sent to Serbia today by the Austro-Hungarian Government.

FACTS ABOUT IMPENDING WAR. Austria-Hungary gives Serbia notice of a declaration of war.

Austria-Hungary has sent two army corps to the border. Germany refuses to join mediation conference.

Story of Cossacks firing over German border believed exaggerated.

Rumor that Austro-Hungarian army has occupied Belgrade, Serbia, unconfirmed.

Stocks continue to tumble in European markets.

England's battle squadron has been mobilized.

Report that the Serbian Parliament has voted to accede to demands.

WHAT THE SCRAP IS ABOUT.

London, July 28.—The actual cause of Austria-Hungary's decision to enter into hostilities with Serbia was the reply sent by the Balkan state to the note from Vienna denouncing that Serbia take steps to put a stop to the Pan-Serbian propaganda on Austrian territory and also punish those Serbians directly concerned in the assassination in Bosnia, on June 28, of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne.

The response of Serbia was considered by the foreign office in Vienna "unsatisfactory" and in a semi-official communication made public yesterday the Austro-Hungarian government said that the reply was "filled with the spirit of dishonesty."

CAMPMEETING

Ruggles Now at Height of Religious Enjoyment—More Preachers Arrive

Ruggles Campgrounds, July 27, 1914.—Our little respite from the heat Sunday evening was only temporary; it's hot as ever again today. A good rain with cooler temperature would be most welcome.

Mr. Boyd Muse led the early prayer service this morning. Rev. E. T. Kelley preached at 10 a. m. a very helpful sermon from the text, "I shall be satisfied when I awake in Thy likeness."

Rev. G. W. Hinton and family returned this afternoon from Mt. Olive in time for the young people's service. Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Matthews of the Mt. Carmel M. E. Church, South, were here for the day.

Rev. John Fletcher Lewis and wife of Newport arrived this evening. Dr. Lewis will preach every evening this week at the evangelistic services. His opening sermon was preached this evening. The largest crowd of the meeting was present. Dr. Lewis preached an intensely evangelistic sermon. The interest was excellent and there is a feeling that we are in for a line series of meetings when much good will be done.

More preachers, Revs. O. J. Vander of Paintsville, C. B. Plummer of Louisville and Zedakia Foster, an evangelist, arrived by auto this evening. More to-morrow. By the middle of the week there will be enough preachers here to destroy all the chicken in Lewis county. It's "good night" for the rest of us folks.

Mr. Boyd Nicholson of Detroit, Mich., is camping at the Hardyman cottage.

We've been in society tonight. After services a birthday surprise party visited the wigwam of Shamus Tribe camp fire girls to do honor to Miss Ida Owens of Covington whose birthday came on Sunday. The charming young lady was taken completely by surprise. About twenty-five or thirty of the young folks were in the crowd. The wigwam had been decorated in the most approved style by the other Indian maidens. Several useful and valuable presents were received by the young lady, such as chewing gum, pop corn, etc. Lemonade and cake was served, and after Miss Owens had received the congratulations and good wishes of the visitors, all marched out on the campus and spent the rest of the evening in games. It was a most happy occasion and one that all will hold in loving memory. It is the hope of the writer that the campfire girls who have been such a happy addition to Ruggles Campmeeting may make this an annual outing hereafter.
